IT'S TIME TO TAKE ACTION!

The Respect Georgia Workers Alliance works to realize workplaces free from discrimination and harassment in Georgia. We do this work through:

- building power with those directly impacted by these issues
- educating our community on their current rights and the need for more protections
- advocating for needed policies to ensure safe and respectful workplaces.

WHAT IS WORKPLACE DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT?

Workplace discrimination and harassment is unwelcome conduct that is based on race, color, religion, sex (including sexual orientation, gender identity or pregnancy), national origin, age or disability.

Workplace harassment can happen at your office, at an after hours work gathering or virtually online.

WHAT SHOULD I DO IF AM DEALING WITH HARASSMENT AT WORK?

KNOW THAT IT IS NOT YOUR FAULT. Workplace harassment is, unfortunately, very common.

- Document and keep any evidence of harassment.
- Your employer is responsible for the harassment only if they know of the conduct. If you can, report it to a supervisor if your employer does not have a policy or you do not feel safe following it.
- Contact the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). The EEOC is the federal agency which enforces federal laws prohibiting discrimination against job applicants and employees
